

The Charnwood Island III is the largest stove in the Island collection. Its majestic proportions make it ideal for larger rooms and open plan areas.

Exuding a nominal 12kW of heat, this is a stove that can take an incredible log length of over half a metre. The Island III offers our largest ever view of the fire. A true wide-screen experience. For further specifications and colour options turn to pages 52 & 56.

